Thriving Industry.

Enlightened foreigners traveling through this country have often marveled at the number of middle-aged women who patiently devote years to the study of acting or painting or music without showing any signs of advancement. The most tireless persistence, cheered by an unflinching optimism, is exhibited by those students of singing, who are "preparing for grand opera," but who have never been heard to sing. Formerly these naive ones were the exclusive prey of those Italians who are the acknowledged masters in the varied arts of craft and guile that are closely allied with the profession of teaching. An instructor of this kind is also an actor, whose face wears the mask of polite indifference and boredom until his prospective pupil lifts her voice, then swiftly ecstasy illumines his features. "Why, oh, why," he cries, "did you not come to me before? To think that such a magnificent organ as yours should be ruined by bad instruction! It will take years to rebuild it. Well, if you have patience the world will acclaim you as the new Adeline Patti." Of late this method of instruction has become a "home industry," our native teachers having improved on the Latin by stipulating that the pupil must not permit even her most intimate friends or nearest of blood kin to hear her sing. Thus, the fact that she has a voice like that of a crow can be kept secret until wisdom comes to her. Then the Jefferisons will cease automatically.

LABOR NEWS AND NOTES

The New Jersey state federation of labor meets at Newark this month.

Minnesota farmers in four years have spent $20,000,000 for new buildings.

A Tennessee boy, competing for a prize, collected 13,276 old tin cans from the alleys of the town in 24 working hours. He got the prize.

Letters are being received by the various labor unions from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation, urging that all union men co-operate in the formation of a Pan-American federation of labor.

Butter's constantly increasing price in France has led the authorities to consider various remedies. The sale of oleomargarine has been authorized temporarily as a war measure in establishments where butter is ordinarily sold.

A cargo of salmon recently shipped out of Vancouver consisted of 5,000 cans, valued at $500,000 wholesale. Laid end to end the cans would reach a distance of 452 miles.

The Toronto Typographical union has raised wages of its newspaper members $1 a week and secured a one year agreement. The rate for evening newspapers is now $22 a week, and for morning newspapers, $24. Wages of apprentices are also increased and the publishers agree to allow these boys to attend the printing classes in the technical school without reducing their wages.

While other governors' sons will spend their vacations at exclusive summer resorts, or go on motoring trips or yachting expeditions, Jerome Dunne, 16-year-old son of the Illinois governor, intends to spend his vacation working as a farm hand near Springfield. And he is to get $3 a day for it, too. The boy is of athletic build and has won many medals. He has received the approval of his father, Governor Edward F. Dunne, and expects to spend at least a month on the farm. The lad is only one of the many Dunne children who have learned to do things, so that they would not be dependent upon others.

The Handle Makers' union of Newark, N. J., has secured a union shop contract, which they insisted upon to protect their active members. These workers make handles for suit cases and hand bags. Their employers wanted to run non-union shops and secured a lawyer to expound statutes and decisions covering the question. The son of Blackstone was helpless, however, before the solidarity of the men who work.

Fix your mind on BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT and don't talk out of ignorance. It is the best pain relieving liniment you can get anywhere. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ringer Drug Co.

When you yawn a good deal in the daytime, feel dull, aches and want to stretch frequently it is an unmistakable symptom of malaria, and unless you do something at once you are booked for a spell of chills. HERBINE is a mild medicine that will prevent or cure the disease. It drives out the impurities on which the malarial germ thrives, strengthens the liver and cleanses the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by Ringer Drug Co.

Feed the Sparrows. A naturalist announces that those tender-hearted persons who have made a custom to supply the wild birds with food in the winter months are really killing them with kindness. "Birds supplied with fat from the food they eat in the summer live through stormy winters without much food," he says, and often when verfed die of diseased liver. Here a suggested way to get rid of the English sparrows that would meet with their hearty appreciation and co-operation.

Apply a cotton cloth wet with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT to all wounds, cuts, burns, sores or blisters, and note its wonderful healing power. It is prompt and very effective. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ringer Drug Co.

A Kindly Attitude. "Have you any objections to me as a son-in-law?" asked the young man. "Yes," replied Mr. Cumrox. "At present you're cheerful and companionable and I like you first rate." "Then why not have me in the family?" "I don't want to take a chance on spoiling you. I don't know how you would turn out after mother and the girls had bossed you around for a few years."—Washington Star.

Mumps Immunity Possible.

That it may be possible to make a serum that shall confer immunity to mumps seems likely as a result of experiments on cats at the Rockefeller Institute by Doctor Wollstein. She inoculated them with the saliva of persons having mumps and found that they contracted the disease. She attenuated the infectious material with the serum of cats that had recovered and found a distinctly lighter reaction. And inoculation of animals that had recovered produced but little effect.

Constipation is the starting point for many serious diseases. To be healthy, keep the bowels active and regular. HERBINE will remove all accumulations in the bowels and put the system in prime condition. Price 50c. Sold by Ringer Drug Co.
